

Barbara Funk
Catharine Funk
Ann Funk

- b. A communion list was referred to by Hotchkin (p. 159). While his list is considerably abbreviated, it is also markedly different, as seven of his fourteen names do not appear in the 1883 Independent article: "In 1789 the list of communicants, in addition to some family names already given, notes the following: Kolb, Moyer, Schreiber, Merewine, Benner, Culp, also Kolp, Nice, Engle, Margaret Smith, David and Mary Getter (Kelter), John Rife, and Hannes Schneider."
4. Colonial burial list.
These tombstone inscriptions are taken from a list compiled by Edsel Burdge from the stones extant in 1983 in the Germantown Mennonite Burial Ground. These were then compared to the list published in the 1913 Mennonite Year Book. The inscriptions are enclosed within quotation marks. These include only persons born before 1780 and buried here. Not all are necessarily members of the Mennonite meeting, as the ground was used by others in the community and by relatives of members. The numbers refer to a map of the burial ground drawn in 1983.
